OUR THOUGHTS TO-DAY.

To-day we honor the memory of the nation's dead. Kind thoughts and recollections come back to the mind for departed ones, who have left their impressions upon our souls that time or eternity will not efface. The soul is a register of good deeds and kind words.
When memory brushes aside the cobwebs of time that have gathered upon its tablets, the impressions made are again clear and are read in the light of our better feelings while the unbidden tears come to give relief to an overflowing well of love and affection for those for whom there is only the dearest remembrance.

These emotions do good to our present and future life by bringing our better motives to the light to be read in a spirit of love. These thoughts and feelings are garnered for future use among the household treasures of God for the elevation of our lives to a better sphere where life and its fruits will be more in union with the desire of those who have taken on a pure and better existence. These fresh thoughts of loved ones gone before lead to new resolves and better desires to live in that which will meet the approval of our beloved friends and relatives who are waiting for our coming where everlasting flowers will bloom over and around us, whose sweet perfume will give happiness and love through eternity.

Time passes and man becomes old.
Its tread is silent but is more sure than the tread of armies. It seems slow but how speedily it passes, while we are engaged caring for its fleeting things. The armies of the union were composed of strong men who were possessed of strong arms and strong wills with a purpose sustained by both.
The object for which they marched and fought was and is an accomplished fact. There is no halfway business about it because it is full of good things to the human family. It was and continues to be a step in the right direction. It includes the elevation of man and a higher and more humane order of things. It contains more.
It secured and proved, it is hoped, for all time, a place where the rights of man will remain secure.

As they marched the tread of ten thousand feet were as one, typical of that for which they marched and fought to secure many in one.
More than a third of a century is covered by the lapse of time since they marched and fought and strong arms and strong wills are no more present.

The elastic step that gave notice of action when they marched and fought has gone to the rear never to return to the front where they marched and fought more than a third of a century ago. We are reminded to day that many of the heroes who marched and fought to secure a united country a long time ago have gone to form a part of a united dust where the old boys who are present to-day will speedily follow the boys who have fallen before a foe they did not fear many years ago.

May God bless them while with uncertain steps they cover the graves of the fallen with flowers to-day who marched and fought for the union and its many blessings to posterity many years ago.

RIGHTS OF ALL MEN AGAINST THE BOERS.

If it is desired to arrive at the view taken by those in the money interests of England and the United States who favor the position of England in the Boer war, it may be learned from any publication on the subject made by those who represent these interests in this country, when discussing the subject. The following extract, taken from a publication made by Henry Clews & Co., bankers in New York, gives out the idea entertained upon the subject by those who take the English view of the war:

"Both Dutch and English have fought for liberty as each understood it. But the Dutch liberty was for the Dutch only, while the English fought for equal rights for all men and not for the privileged few of a single nationality."

The theory is that England in its power can say to the world, come to any part of the world where England rules and you shall have the same rights that all other men have, which is true in a sense for the protection of life and property, but the right to participate in government is not made a part of the rights of all men, as the right to rule is reserved for Englishmen only. It requires an act of Parliament in the tight little island to give a right to a foreigner to hold real estate in England in fee, and it is not every one who can become a subject of Great Britain by intention.

The rights of Englishmen are so fully cared for in England that an outsider has very little show to become an Englishman through the forms of law, but these Britains are in the Transvaal and all over the world talking about the rights of all men when applied to the government of the Dutch in South Africa, and their many cousins on this side have taken up the refrain and are helping the English to talk "rights of all men."

The right of all men begins and ends with the right to protection to life and property. These rights are most fully accorded to all men by the English government, but these rights are protected by born Englishmen, and not by foreigners who have become Englishmen by intention. The Transvaal government could not in any civilized form be more scrupulous over the elective franchises than is England.

When it is learned that the much-boasted rights given by England to all men are confined to the rights of life and property, while the lion is roaring at a weak power, demanding all the rights to Englishmen that the people of the weak power possess, it is not so exalted a position that England occupies when it is fighting the Boers for the rights of all men. There were more rights conferred by the Boers on the English than England will claim could be conferred upon the Boers under the English system. The talk about the rights of all men will do when usurpation is the object through extension of power over a weak people.

Very Low With Typhoid.
Aeneas Riordan, a student at the University, is lying at death's door with typhoid fever. Mr. Riordan has been sick for some time, but his condition did not become alarming until a few days back, when the young man was unfortunate enough to suffer a relapse.

Dr. Pickard was called from Virginia City last evening to consult with the attending physicians of this city.
Typhoid, being a deceptive disease, no definite conclusion can be arrived at, only that Mr. Riordan is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Riordan, parents of the sick student, are expected in this evening.

Man Injured.

A laborer working on a bridge near Floriston had the misfortune to fall from the framework of the bridge into the Truckee river. His arm was broken by the fall and internal injuries sustained. Before help could arrive the unlucky individual nearly drowned, and his condition was truly deplorable when rescued. He was brought into Reno on a freight train yesterday afternoon and taken down to the French hotel, where medical aid was summoned. While sorely bruised and battered no fatal effects will result from the accident.

Laid to Rest.

The funeral of Mrs. Murdock took place from the Baptist church Tuesday morning. Reverend Huddleston preached the sermon and spoke most tenderly of the dead and sympathetically to those left in deepest mourning.

THE SITUATION IN CHINA MOST DESPERATE

Minister Carter Has Asked for United States Marines to Guard His Legation.

Special to the JOURNAL.

LONDON, May 30.—Cables from Shanghai indicate the situation in China as most desperate. Thousands of Boxers, a Chinese secret society, intent on expelling foreigners, are gathering about Peking. The Boxers, no doubt, are being encouraged by the Empress Dowager and the entire Manchurian army. The Imperial troops sent against the Boxers found themselves hopelessly outnumbered. Several hundred were killed and several guns and many rifles were captured. The remaining troops then deserted to the Boxers.

The Belgian Minister, escorted by a strong body guard, has gone to obtain an audience with the Chinese Foreign Office. A number of his countrymen with their families have been cut off by rebels at Chang Hsin Tien.

Minister Carter has asked for United States marines to guard his legation, and authority has been cabled him. All foreign offices in Peking have sent for troops to protect them.
The Boxers are murdering missionaries and converts throughout the Empire.

Opera House, Episcopal church and "Messenger" office.
Buildings were blown up by giant powder to check the flames.

stroyed. Loss $60,000, insurance $10,000.

STOCKTON, May 29.—Mrs. Mary B. O'Dell returned daughter of Capt. Moss and wealthy. She has changed her name six times in the past eight years. She declares the Reno Justice is kept busy owing to the California divorce law, and that couples stand in line awaiting for "next."

Special to the JOURNAL.

LONDON, May 30.—Lord Salisbury has officially announced the entry of the British forces into Johannesburg.
The cavalry advance is now within twenty miles of Pretoria.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Kid McCoy got the decision over

PATRIOTIC HIGH SCHOOL

A Program of Songs and Recitations Rendered Yesterday Afternoon.

The students of the Reno High School held Memorial Day exercises yesterday afternoon. Patriotic recitations and songs and a brief address by Principal Bray comprised the program. Leo Dickey's declamation on the "American Flag" (by Beecher) was a fine effort, displaying in the young man many qualities of the orator.

The song by a sextet of boys was well rendered, receiving a hearty encore, and the cantata by a bevy of girls in white, assisted by their visiting male friends, Gus Hoffman and John Shannon, was very amusing and highly entertaining.

A delegation from the Grand Army Post, consisting of Colonel Monroe, Captain Hamlin, Messer, Robinson, and Kienast, was present. The veterans seemed to enjoy the exercises heartily and expressed themselves as greatly pleased and impressed at the high degree of excellence marking all the numbers on the program.

The Reno schools observe, with appropriate exercises, all the great days in our history. Stimulating patriotism and a love for the great and brave men in all departments of our national life and history. The practice is certainly a good one and all our people should encourage it.

His Life Was Saved.Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo. lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death.
In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me.
I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong, I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lungs Trouble.

Not all men of the legal profession are content with the severe inscription and custom usually confine them. An Ohio lawyer who makes a specialty of collections calls attention to this fact by a novel device printed on his cards and letter heads. On a great red splotch intended to represent a drop of blood are the words, "Claims collected in cold blood," the capital "C" for the three first letters of those words being of sufficient size to encircle the other words.In Maryville, Mo., a lawyer presents his portrait on his card, with the suggestive motto: "He that is not with you is against you. See me early."Nothing is so indicative of deepest About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size.

Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has nothad a similar attack since.—A. B. PAR-

Best in the WorldWe believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome is the best medicine out for colds and
